

Don C Harris

Don C Harris, author of THINK RED INK, is a former pastor who was plagued by an inability to accept the illogical explanations of traditional Christianity. He quit. For 23 years he traveled to all 48 contiguous states as well as to Alaska, Canada, Mexico, Nigeria and Israel looking for answers. What did he find? "Red ink ... Jesus came to teach us to think."

Harris is the host of the daily Red Letter Edition - LIVE! radio program. Don is the Director of Think Red Ink Ministries International and broadcasts around the clock and around the world.

If you have been turned out or turned off by traditional Christianity, you will find a refreshing approach to hearing the Word of God in Don's books, radio and television programs or recorded videos. Jesus often surprised those in His audience with His ideas, ways and perspectives.

Ministry Objective:

To reach people who are disappointed with God due to church and religion; to present the unadulterated message of the "Word of God". We must let go of our answers, before we can hear the questions and instruction of the Word of God.

Nearly every false doctrine and practice in today's religions come from an erroneous perception of the "Word of God." And, when it comes to erasing the board, nobody does it like Don (a/k/a The Eraser).

"Help! My Bible is ruining my religion," was the Don Harris former pastor! Don discovered that have shaky foundations based on excerpted scriptures, marketing theatrics. The questions of Jesus, the Red Letters reveal a God we have not known.

surprising realization of traditional churches slogan theology and of the Bible,
