

Red Letter Edition

What did Jesus Say?

An Ancient Call . . .

by Don C Harris

Are you the man or woman you desire to be? Is your life what you desire it to be? Do you live in the power and holiness that you know was designed for, and promised to, a child of God? If not, why not?

It would be easy to list a host of reasons for the lack of the supernatural in our lives. Some have explained it by simply saying that, "God is dead... that's that... now let's do whatever we want."

Unfortunately the nominal Christian can offer little honest evidence to the contrary.

Some postulate a series of steps or operations to bring us to a better life as Christians. We read their books, try their methods for a while and are briefly pleased with the results, but soon find its effects are fleeting and temporary. Our life resumes its former acrimony.

We despair.

We crave new inspiration to continue.

We search for a new book.

Does this sound at all like John 4:13-14, when... "Jesus said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." ?

In the light of John 6:35, "And Jesus said, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst" and with millions who complain about their churches saying, "We just don't get fed there." Or "We are looking for more than just milk." "I am starving for teaching" we have to admit that many have NEVER drank from the well nor eaten the bread our Lord describes. Could it be that a true believer in Christ feels no such gnawing hunger – no such parching thirst for "more"?

Think for a moment.

Are we lacking in power because we do not know a secret that our God has hidden from us? Are we at the mercy of our emotions because we lack a certain pharmaceutical concoction in our brains? Are we selfish and egocentric because we have no counselors to teach us differently? Do we hunger for spiritual food and drink because we lack good Bible teachers? Why do we think that a better doctor or attendance at a seminar or advice from the right theologian will help us? Life continues to kick us around, our emotions still overcome us, we exhibit less and less self control and we find it harder and harder to love those who do not love us... because...

Click for more.

ThINKer's Thoughts & Tabernacles memories...

"...How goodly are thy tents..."

Quietness settled the camp as each ThINKer prepared to join the others at the Presentation Table and to invite our God to celebrate with us - the set times of Yehovah!

Did you celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles? You are invited to share your pictures. Send your thoughts and pictures to Don@ThinkRedInk.com. Don and other ThiNKers enjoy hearing from you!

We had a wonderful gathering the evening of 9/10 for the beginning of Yom Teruah... Saw the sliver of the moon before we all headed back to our homes. ... I think we had around 15 shofars blowing at the same time, it was awesome.

~ThiNKer in TX

Happy Tabernacles!
With love,
From Lagos

After growing up in the Assembly of God and other Pentecostal churches, I found the more I studied, the more questions I began having concerning the truth of the doctrine I had always been taught. Many of the subjects I've heard you cover are those that I've questioned myself, so I'm both encouraged to know I'm not alone and anxious to take the information you present into prayer and my studies. I know the Holy Spirit will guide me in all truth and understanding because He's the reason I'm here in the first place.

~ ThiNKer in NM (new)

Thank you for listing the feast dates, I cannot keep up with the scriptural months and dates. I wish we could attend your celebration, hopefully one day we will. Also, thanks for keeping me on email list.

~ ThiNKer in AR

[The Spirit of Grace] is such a powerful message. I was almost, almost in the Messianic movement but when I learned that the teacher was saying he was getting himself prepared to sacrifice in the New Temple, I contacted Don Harris.

~ ThiNKer in TX

... do you have any more of the Think Red Ink Coffee cups? I want one and I am willing to pay anything it costs! ... I think it would be a good advertisement for TRI sitting on my desk at work. Let me know!

~ ThiNKer in OH

I don't know how you manage to do it but it seems when a need a good dose of clear thinking medicine, there you are. ... I've been meaning to write you to ask if you'd consider a nightly recorded reading of Scripture. ...I can read myself and listen to tapes but it's not the same as knowing who is reading. Lo and behold there you were this morning, reading the Gospel of John. I loved it! I was glad to open email and find the Tabernacles announcement. ... I've been the last 2 years in my backyard alone, but I've decided I want some Thinkers fellowship. I'm afraid I don't have much stamina these days but I'll be happy to do all I can to help. I look forward to having this time with the Father. Looking forward to Tabernacles!

~ ThINKer in NM

You are always in my thoughts and prayers! I have had to move ... Hope not to move again! Will join you in spirit at the Feast of Tabernacles this year. Just happy I am able to tune in again. Blessings

~ThINKer in SA

May everyone attending Tabernacles be blessed in rejoicing in the Lord. My Spirit will be there. Grace, peace & joy.

~ThINKer in TX

I hope this note finds you doing well. As always thank you for any and all material you send me. The dial in radio shows are truly a blessing also. Getting ready for Hurricane Florence. If people would get ready for Christ like they get ready for these storms, that would be something. Yours in Christ.

~ThINKer in VA

Originally caught one of Don's appearances on Light of the Southwest, then read his books. I've also ordered an audio CD before. Please send me a copy of the DVD "Surviving the End". (Done! Thanks, TRI supporters).

~ ThINKer in NM

Thank you for the monthly RLEzines. Also, I appreciated the 9/8 issue which clarified the fall Feasts of the Lord. Your teachings through the years has helped me to better discern truth in what I read and hear. I thank you again.

~ ThINKer in TX

I really enjoyed the program today ... I have listened to TRI on my I-Pad for hours.... A LOT to get done before the sun sets and the Sabbath begins.

~ThINKer in TX

... grace could be employed as a synecdoche (the part put for the whole) for the summation of God's thrilling scheme of redemption. It is entirely reasonable, therefore, that these two systems should be set forth in a contrasted fashion, such as law and grace.

~ ThINKer in NV

I saw you on GLC a long time ago and said to myself this guy is different and I liked that, teachers were teaching one thing and I did not see that in the bible?? So I got confused because they said something I didn't get, then I saw you on there and said wow this guy sees what I see, I still have a lot of questions but I know you tell the truth because it goes along with the word. Thank you

~ThINKer from the Internet

Here is hoping that your time of celebration is a wonderful restful time in Him. I have so enjoyed the programming on TRI Radio during this Feast time of year. Can you tell me what played this morning on 4th day (9-19-18) at 6 a.m. mountain time (7 a.m. Central time) [It was Kent Hovind.] I really was receiving some awesome things and would like to hear it again. I do not know who the speaker was but I know I have heard him on TRI before. Thanks for everything

~ ThINkEr from TX

Thank you for being with us Sunday. It was a pleasant time for us but it also was sad for me to realize your difficulty with health issues and the systemic effects. ...If I/we can help we will. Again, thank you for being social during difficulty.

~ ThINkEr in AZ

THINKER FROM THE INTERNET: The trinity, I don't get it, to me he was the son of God but not God, can you explain this?

REPLY FROM DON: The nice thing about trinity is that you can believe it or not believe it. It is not essential. However, there is no Scriptural support for trinity. I can show you scripturally that, "...he who denies the Father and the son is antichrist." Trinity is a non-issue regarding salvation. Keep the commandments and love your brother. If there is someone in your life that would like to debate this with me, have them call my radio show. I suspect you have heard this from the church. Don't let people push you around. Read for yourself, think for yourself. Be empowered. Discover these things for yourself.

TRI Tabernacles Memories

Personally, I had some health difficulties this year. I've heard my assistant say about me, "Don is used to being a 5-speed and right now he's having trouble reaching 3rd gear." It is difficult to face the limitations of my health. Vision problems are particularly frustrating. Reading LED text to tune the frequency of a wireless mic to the audio system used to be a quick step in a series of fifty, needed to set up a broadcast. Now, it is insurmountable. I am sorry I was unable to broadcast. It is never easy to "do less." Now, small things of yesterday are individually huge tasks, so less is accomplished.

Nevertheless, we had a wonderful Feast of Tabernacles! Good fellowship, friends and food! The weather was beautiful and the campfires were cozy. We had visits from old friends and made new friends too! We read the law and sang songs around the campfire. It was good to remove ourselves from the hectic stream of everyday life and to enjoy the quiet of Mt. Concho.

I've included a few photographic glimpses into the week. To quote another visitor, "People have no idea of all the work it takes to transform a camp-ground into a Feast site - "fit for a King." It's true. It takes effort to make an extraordinary space for this week-long party!

Thanks to all.

Friendly,
Don

"Fun times all around. Hope you make plans to attend the Feast of Tabernacles next year!"

Hear Don "in the hot seat" as he answers the question plaguing Modern Christianity.

THINK RED INK MINISTRIES | PO BOX 718 | PIE TOWN, NM | (575) 772-2588
| Don@ThinkRedInk.com | Think Red Ink

STAY CONNECTED

