The Greater Pentecost

Savin' the Best for Last...

Remember that the details of the holy days give us points to recognize the prophetic fulfillments. Just as the ram in the thicket, the clothing made of skins in Eden, the scapegoat in the wilderness (and many other details in prophetic events) when compared to the details of the life of Jesus reveal Him as the Messiah, we will see Pentecost FUTURE revealed both in the details of its Old Testament observance and its New Testament fulfillment.

Judgment fell upon Egypt. Death visited EVERY house, (mind you EVERY house including the houses of Israel). Jehovah took the firstborn male from every family in the entire land of Egypt. Likewise, judgment is to fall upon modern Egypt – the world in which we now live. We face the same judgment as the world that does not know our God, but long ago He made provision for us to escape that death!

At Sinai, fifty days after the Children of Israel escaped Egypt and this visitation of death, they received words of instruction to clarify and enhance their relationship to the God of their deliverance.

Fifty days after the death of Messiah, our Passover, on the Day of Pentecost, we received the accompanying gift of that deliverance – conversation and communion giving insight into the requirements of living in community with Jehovah.

"...This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more...

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together... ; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day [of judgment] approaching."

Heb. 10

Even as the world as we knew it comes apart, we take joy in knowing we have all we need (come what may) to endure to the end as we anticipate with you the coming Greater Pentecost. Be strong. Be encouraged.

Friendly, Don
