

As always thank you for any and all material you send me. Thank you for all you do to keep TRI going. [Ditto! "THANKS" to faithful friends and supporters; continuation of TRI is definitely a joint effort.] I truly enjoy listening to Don on the dial-up Radio show. I encourage anyone that wants to know Don's message better to use every platform to do so, whether podcast, ThinkRedInk.com, or dial-in. I thank YHVH for sending Don to us, because his teachings do make us think. Thank you for all you do. In Christ.

~ ThINKer in VA

TEXAS THINKER: Thanks, again, for keeping my name on the mailing list. As expected, the RLE was a home run: real, vital info. I do have a question: with time passing at a "dead gallop", Passover is quickly coming. How does one like me who really can't travel and not knowing any other THINKERS properly observe it? [NOTE: Red Letter Academy "ON LEAVEN – Keeping a Christian Passover" is now available on YouTube.] I've been on this "trail" for 40+ years and want to get it right in His eyes. Thanks, again, and BLESSINGS.

TRI TEAM: It's great to hear from you. Thanks for sharing your thoughts and experiences... I have also had the Passover Feast on my mind. It's fun when the Feasts of the Lord come to their proper place in our schedules. ...Only occasionally does TRI Ministries have a congregational meeting for Passover. It is entirely appropriate to keep the feast in your home. The first step of this feast is to "get the leaven out" of our homes. (More from Don on that topic – ON LEAVEN DVD). The Passover Remembrance is kept as a meal on the 14th day of First Month (Biblical Calendar), expected to be April 2nd (Gregorian calendar) this year. The remembrance of Passover at TRI is to have leavened bread and wine, before sunset (the Feast of Unleavened Bread begins after sunset); then, perhaps a simple vegetarian meal.

TEXAS THINKER: Thank you for the note of Jan 17 and the RLA: ON LEAVEN DVD. Over the years, I've consumed a mountain of matzah and racks of "Ry-Krisp" (ever had pizza with a Ry-Krisp crust?). ...However, Passover had always left that little, nagging doubt that "something is not quite right here". Your response has made the "dark glass" so much clearer. The times being what they are, this Passover may well be one of the last relatively peaceful. I'm eagerly looking forward to this one and finally getting it right. Thanks again and blessings. ...Being a "Sr. Citizen", I still like to read. Really appreciate the included RLA: On Leaven class notes.

TEXAS THINKER: I listened to a few of your television programs and for the most part have enjoyed them. I'm 60 years old. I have been trained in the Wesleyan tradition, was a preacher for a while in Methodist churches; left the Methodist church because of disagreements with the hierarchy. Preached at a small non-denominational for a while. Currently out of professional ministry. Attending our local Southern Baptist church. There have been some challenging moments with some things you have said, but I didn't turn you off or change the channel. I like that you say your Revelation is straight from God but then again that was David Koresh's claim also. So I listen to what you have to say and contemplate it, and read the passage for myself and pray about it and go on from there. I love your conversation style and your humor. I've been challenged and encouraged in my faith. Thank you! Forgot to tell you. ...I saw the program through GLC, channel 16, KPTB.

TRI TEAM: Thank you for your email, your honesty and your bravery. We hope you will share your appreciation for the program with GLC. All Think Red Ink Ministry materials are available free-of-charge. Please let us know if you have a request or go online to: <https://materials.thinkredink.org/>

- Don C. Harris (1957 - 2021) - Sadly (for us) Mr. Harris is now awaiting the resurrection. Praise YHVH that Don's study of the Words of Jesus and other messages and revelations were recorded. Truth is ever-green. Jesus said it this way, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Matt. 24

...The challenging times continue. Hope support for TRI Ministries continues. May we always look to our Lord Jesus Christ for peace and power in our lives.

~ ThINKer in TX

 I so appreciate the audio I am getting every day and the teachings they have helped me so much and I have never felt closer to The Lord in years. 08:59

Thank you for keeping me on the mailing list! Much appreciated! Mr. Don Harris lovingly supplied me with excellent scriptural DVDs & books (i.e., "The Questions of Jesus" & "On Manna") are a permanent fixture on my bedside table! Much love in our Messiah YAHUSHA & abundant blessings!

~ ThINKer in SA

Imagine considering Jesus words. Bam! I dare ya.

~ ThINKer in GA

I want to thank you for keeping the ministry going and available for us. The website is very nice and full of good material. I did register ...I am hoping to find someone locally who watches Don's programs so that I can have some fellowship. I have tried talking with some of my friends about hearing the voice of the Lord, but most of them don't seem very interested. I hope that things are going well with you. Thank you again.

~ ThINKer in TX

I am not afraid to stand alone.

~ ThINKer in FB

...Oh my, has the Father been busy in my life. ... Anyhow, that being said. Didn't we used to have a little booklet on Sabbath? [Yes!] If you have any left could you send me about 5 copies? [Done! Looking forward to hear from you again.] ...I am excited to hear back from you. May YeHoVah continue to guide, protect, cover and reveal His will in our lives.

~ ThINKer in NM

Thank you. This [The Word of God – Our True Source] was one of the revelations I cherished coming from Don. God bless his memory.

~ ThINKer in Nigeria

TEXAS THINKER: Thank you for sending me the link to the Parable Paradox which was quite good. I appreciate you sharing the link.

TRI TEAM: You are very welcome. We recently published a video titled, “Surviving the End” on Think Red Ink Ministries Face Book page that I think you will appreciate. Not on Face Book? It is also available here: <https://iamreadytoknow.thinkredink.org>.

TEXAS THINKER: Regarding GLC, I have put it on my schedule to contact them every couple of weeks and ask them to continue presenting "The Words of Jesus". [Brilliant!] I am surprised that it's not their most watched show. [Me, too!] Yesterday, the teaching on the lost sheep, lost coin, and lost (prodigal) son is probably one of the best teachings that I have ever heard, anywhere. I am so thankful to be able to watch this series.

TRI TEAM: GREAT idea! It's very good have ongoing notice and appreciation. Thank you.

TEXAS THINKER: Does Don have a CD on the topic of listening to God or hearing His voice? I was thinking that I remembered seeing a CD on the website on this topic a few months ago, but I can't locate it now...

TRI TEAM: Perhaps you are thinking of "The Word of God" DVD? [Sent to you.] Mostly, remember hearing the voice of God is a personal journey. You will often hear Don say: 1) Keep the Ten Commandments. All of them. Start here. 2) Take time every day to hear the voice of God. Substitute silent waiting-worship in place of daily petition prayers; 20 minutes or so each day. People often report not-hearing anything, but notice throughout the day or week an understanding or correction; the Spirit of God leading from the inside. And 3) never, ever violate your conscience. Do the right thing, for the right reason, every time. These steps contain the process of learning to be led by the Spirit; you will be surprised how often the Scriptures refer to these things. ...Treasures hidden for us. Here's one: "And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men." said the Apostle Paul as recorded in Acts 24:16

TEXAS THINKER: How are things with you? I hope you are hearing from people who have been listening to Don and that they are keeping you busy so you will know how much you are appreciated for keeping the ministry going. :-)

TRI TEAM: Thank you. We, like you and Don, marvel that this message is not more popular!

TRI TEAM: Remember to send TRI your thoughts, questions, revelations, correspondence and notes. Written notes - the retro-way to connect with friends and family! It's good to share, to encourage ...exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." (Heb. 10)